

NM Celebration for Women in Computing

in collaboration with the

NMG Collaborative in CSTEM Conference
November 8 - 9 , 2012
NM Farm & Ranch Heritage Museum

4100 Dripping Springs Rd., Las Cruces

Explore. Expand. Evolve.

Conference Tracks:

* Technology Talks / Research *

*Social / Cultural / Ethical Issues for

Women in Computing *

* CSTEM & the NM Girls Collaborative *

REGISTER ONLINE by Nov. 4 WWW.nmcwic.org

Registration Fee: $25. Lunch/dinner included.

NMCWiC is currently seeking funding for Scholarship opportunities.

This Celebration for Professionals in industry and academia boasts outstanding speakers: Microsoft, the Anita Borg Institute, Intel, Google, Virgin Galactic, NMSU, UNM, NM Tech, SFI, DataONE, Wired Nation, Acaji, & more!

Call for Posters and Workshop Presenters

To submit your poster and workshop ideas, please access the conference website for full details.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THE CONFERENCE: Contact Rebecca Galves at 575-646-3728 or rgalves@cs.nmsu.edu.

The Grace Hopper Regional Consortium and Anita Borg Institute for Women in Technology work to expand the positive impact of the national Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing (GHC) and the NCWIT Practices Summit to underserved, local, diversity-rich populations.

NMGC in CSTEM connects organizations and individuals across New Mexico committed to informing and motivating girls to pursue careers in computing, science, technology, engineering and mathematics (CSTEM).